WILL GO TO COLUMBIA

J. W. Garner, of the History Department, Awarded a Fellowship at Columbia University

In this issue the TECH takes pleasure in presenting the likeness and recording the good fortune of Mr. J. W. Garner, instructor in the History Department. He has been awarded a fellowship in Columbia University, at New York City, and will put in two years there, completing his study and research along historical lines, principally political and constitutional history. An entrance to Columbia University will crown an old ambition in the heart of Mr. Garner. Columbia is acknowledged to be the finest place in the world to study law and political science. The library at Columbia for this purpose is the best anywhere. Furthermore, it will let Mr. Garner work with Mr. Burgess, whose useful books on American political history grace the shelves of our library. The fellowship awarded to Mr. Garner carries with it a good income, sufficient for all expenses. Two years with such auspicious environments and favorable opportunities will eminently fit Mr. Garner for the chosen life work, for which many who had enjoyed his instruction felt that he was already well qualified.

J. W. GARNER

Mr. Garner was educated in the colleges of Mississippi and went to Chicago in 1896, where he was a graduate student until his advent in Bradley in '98. That he is esteemed at the University of Chicago is shown by the fact that he was recently awarded a fellowship there, and declined it to accept the one at Columbia University. There are but fifteen offered in all of the departments at the latter school, and the award to Mr. Garner is significant. He will study at the University of Chicago this summer. A fact which probably helped Mr. Garner to secure the Columbia fellowship is that he has just written, and is having published, a work entitled "A History of Secession, Reconstruction and Revolution of Mississippi." The book deals with one of the most exciting and eventful periods in the history of Mississippi, and is the only work treating with the exact subject in hand. That the work is attracting attention in the state with which it deals is shown by the fact that the State Legislature has appropriated $2,000 to be used in the publication of the history.

The New Club

The Biological club held its first meeting April 19th. After a business meeting Dr. Lyons spoke on 'The effects of Electricity on Locomotion of Animals." The officers of the club are as follows: Pres., Miss Mary Rice; Vice Pres , Mark Cowell; Sec'y and Treas., John Dexter; Executive Committee, Mr. Packard, Miss Rice and Miss Sanner.

Bradley in Evidence.

Dr. Wyckoff gave his lecture on the Boer war, April 17, at the banquet of the Congregational Club. The Bradley Orchestra furnished music for the occasion, and the Domestic Economy department furnished one of the tables, while a company of the girls helped serve.

OF ALL sad words of lad or lass, the saddest are these: "I might have passed."

Arts and Crafts Club

At the last meeting of the Arts and Crafts Club, March 29th, Miss Mary V. Bestor of the Art League, delivered an excellent lecture on, "Some Old Bookbindings." The lecture was illustrated with specimens of bookbindings and bookbinder's tools and with many pictures. Miss Bestor did well to explain this interesting but little known branch of the arts, and the Club is to be congratulated on having secured her services.

The next meeting of the club will be held Wednesday, May 2d, at 3:30 p. m., and will be similar in character to the Ruskin meeting, held some time ago. The entire program will be devoted to the consideration of William Morris and his work. It is expected that this will prove to be one of the most interesting meetings of the year.

Just now the members of the Arts and Crafts Club are much interested in a poster contest. 'Little Journeys to the Homes of Eminent Painters," by Elbert Hubbard, will be given as a prize to the person designing the best poster, announcing the Spring exhibition. This contest is open to all students and closes May 14th. The main points to be noted in the regulations are these. The design must be not less than 9x12 inches and must be worded as follows: "Arts and Craft's Club Exhibition, Bradley Polytechnic Institute, May 28th to June 1st, 1900.

The Spring exhibition will consist of articles useful in the homes, and will be held during the week commencing May 28th, and articles intended for exhibition must be in by May 23d, the Wednesday preceding. Medals will be given for Needlework, Metalwork, Woodwork, Jewelry and Drawing, thus giving students a wide range of subjects to work on, and assures a representative exhibit.

Joys of Childhood.

The following verses are said to have been written at the faculty boarding house, and were inspired by the sight of Mrs. Kedzie's little chickens:

When morning parts night's curtained sky,
The lake with sunlight gleams;
The English sparrow wakes hard by,
The cock-crow breaks my dreams,
Oh, then I love to leave my bed,
And forth with her to stroll,
And get our little chickens fed,
Ere I go off to school.

When ev'ning hides our bluff in shade,
When work of day is done;
When Cupid calls each youth and maid
To meet the one loved-one,—
Oh, that's the hour I love the best—
The boon that pity begs—
We hunt for every hidden nest,
And gather in the eggs.

But when the smoke of day is driven
Afar by winds of night,
And through the clouds by nature riven,
Her full-orbed moon shines bright,
I dream that far on Heaven's way,
All housed in golden pens,
We spend eternity's bright day
Just tending to the hens.

The Stage.

The examinations for the winter quarter closed March 23, and to celebrate the occasion, Mr. O'Rear, of the Institute, contracted with Jacob Litt, of McVicker's Chicago, to bring a company of actors here to assist the Bradley boys produce "Sporting Life" at the Grand. It was a great occasion, and one long to be remembered. We copy the following extracts from advance bills of the play: "During the performance everybody not actually engaged in the play or connected with the mechanical department (Dexters in Cyrano) is rigidly excluded from the stage, and even then that sacred region fairly teems with bustle and animation!" "There were thirty important parts to be filled, to say nothing of the hundred or more *sup*ernumeraries (that's us) to be carefully chosen and assiduously trained for the component bits." "Every member was chosen for his or her adaptability to the character to be portrayed, as well as for his or her talent, standing or experience in the theatrical profession; and from the leading man (Fuller or McClyment) down to the humblest stable boy (Ted Tracy!) there is observed a naturalness, etc." "There are two scenes requiring the entire company to appear in evening dress, and as a dress suit is quite particular about whose person it adorns (that's too much), the single task of selecting a small army of men elegible to the swallow-tailed guild proved a gigantic undertaking in organizing the company!!" C. C L.

Those Cakes

A good joke is told up in the domestic economy department at the expense of Mrs. Burgess. It was the night of the parents' meeting and Mrs. Burgess was showing some of the doting parents around the building. Coming to the case in which repose the cakes made a year ago by the former cooking class, she explained, "now here are some cakes made by your girls; just try them, arn't they nice?" And the parents, who were really hungry after the long session down stairs began to eat of some small cakes. Observe that we say "began" to eat. They would bite once or twice, feel of their jaws and then with a far away look would say "yes, how nice, and they learned to bake them here did they?" The story is told to the TECH editor by one of the ladies employed in the kitchen. She thought it too good to keep, and so do we. If Mrs. Burgess reads the TECH she will now understand why the parents were not more profuse in their praise of cakes that had been baked a year.

Bradley Calendar

March 19—Stock gets disrespectful in German and gives Charlemagne the undignified appelation of "Shorty."

March 21.—Exams.

March 22.—More exams.

March 26.—Spring quarter begins.

March 27.—Three fine large cakes, relics of the stone age, mysteriously disappear from the Domestic Economy Department.

March 28.—It is suspected that three young men materially aided and abetted the escape of the above-mentioned cakes, but the young men prove an alibi and the ban of suspension is raised.

March 30.—On account of "pressing" business, Schaefer is unable to attend the meeting of the History Club.

March 31.—Alpha Pi has its picture taken and photographer buys a new camera.

April 2.—Bradley's quarterly supply of soup arrives in the shape of several dozen cans of tomatoes. Kirtley elected captain of Higher Academy track team vice Wick, resigned.

April 7.—Athletic benefit is a grand success. Manager O'Rear discovered behind the scenes throwing boquets at himself.

April 9.—Sure signs of spring—Tennis Association wakes up and season base ball tickets appear.

April 11.—Twenty dollar bill lost somewhere in the building. Janitors sweep in all of the corners that night.

April 14.—Bradley, 17; Lincoln, 10.

April 18.—Many students buy umbrellas. Judge Kohlsaat speaks in chapel. Little later in the day—Many students break their umbrellas.

April 19.—Fletcher studies his German before he goes to class.

April 20.—Harris appears with a fancy Canton hair-cut.

Social.

On the evening of the 13th ult., Miss Mary Rice entertained about twenty "Instituters." It was a Mother Goose party, and if reports are true, even Bradley's dignified seniors can thoroughly enjoy themselves playing the games they played so long ago. "Simple Simon" offers the only regret of the evening, as he was so fittingly masked that people on the streets refused to direct him to a residence he wanted to find, taking him to be a fool indeed.

The Cooking Class and the Mouse.

Once upon a time, not long ago,
The Cooking Class, the one at noon, you know,
Made quite a noise and quite a clamor,
And it happened in this manner:

A mouse of an investigating mind,
Started out, some cheese to find.
Tripping lightly up the stair
He smelt a smell so very rare,
That he traced it to its source.
Joy of joys, what sweet delight,
He has found it, out of sight.
Tremblingly he now advances,
Encounter now some twenty glances,
Sees before him flying feet,
The air is rent with many a shriek;
Now all is quiet, silence deep.
Steals he forth, with step so sure,
To the smells that still allure,
But lo! upon the table perched,
Just where he would make his search,
The routed army all are camped;
Fear upon his face is stamped.
And alas he waiteth, for their move in vain,
Then softly steals away, hoping soon to come again,
This was told me by a little bird.
Who from the mouse, the story heard.

Ask Dr. Wyckoff?

English history puzzles me,
I never can see why,
After so many reigns,
It still should be so dry.

THE STUDENTS do not seem to appreciate the music on the pipe organ, until for some reason the organ is not used. Early in the quarter, Mr. Sisson took advantage of Mr. Wabeke's absence and spoke of the matter. Just before vacation the organ was out of order and this necessitated the using of the piano. The difference was very noticeable. A pipe organ in the college chapel is something that few schools can boast of, and we of the Institute should appreciate ours more than we do.

THE BLEACHERS which have been added to the athletic field are a decided improvement over those of last year. They are higher, seats wider, and are made more permanent. These can be added to when there is need for more, until we will have a nice line of bleachers. The one thing now needed is a canvas for the fence. When this is secured, Bradley Institute will have a very complete athletic field. The diamond this year is in the best of shape, though the track should be graded down in left field.

SUN shining brightly.
BIRDS sing loud and clear.
TECH knows all are happy
FOR dear gentle spring is here.
BUT still another reason
WHY we have ceased to sigh,
ANYONE can tell you
IT'S Porter's bright red tie.

MISS SZOLD has re-entered school.

ROY PAGE was in Metamora on the 22d.

MISS LUCIA NOYES was absent the 28th and 29th.

MR. HURD, who was sick for several weeks, has dropped out of school until next year.

MR. ROPP has gone to Macomb to attend school.

DEXTER was a visitor at Wyoming over Sunday, the 25th.

MISS EMORY was recently a visitor at the Northwestern.

MISS WILLA CASE has returned from her sojourn in California.

DR. J. B. GARNER spent the spring vacation with his wife in Indiana.

MR. RADLEY was at his home in Jubilee recently, running the election.

RALPH SMITH helped to elect the entire ticket at his home in Washington, Apr. 2d.

MESSRS. THOMAS AND PARKER, of Knox College, visited the Institute, March 30th.

PHIL WICK has accepted a position in New York City with the American Steel Co.

MR. BEINFOHR recited at a recent Y. M. C. A. reception, pleasing a large audience.

THE HERALD-TRANSCRIPT recently gave considerable space to the discussion of the new metal "Reponium" which Walter Riepon, second year chemistry class is after.

MR. GALT, manager of the Monmouth team, was in conference with Manager Bunn, the 30th.

THE ALPHA PIS have changed their quarters and are now pleasantly located on Fredonia Ave.

PROF. COMSTOCK'S parents were recent Institute visitors.

MISS MINNIE WEYRICK has been obliged to be out of school for two weeks on account of illness.

H. A. MACCLYMENT, of Chicago, witnessed the opening ball game, and spent Easter in the city.

MISS EMILY PROCTOR was unable to be in school the first week of the quarter, on account of sickness.

ALLEN T. BURNS paid the Institute a visit the 26th. Mr. Burns supplied the Baptist pulpit the 25th.

MISS BESS WEIRICH attended the promenade of the Delta Tau Delta fraternity at the University of Illinois, April 7th.

MISS ELIZABETH WEIRICK was in Champaign recently to attend the annual banquet of the Delta Tau Delta Fraternity.

IT IS "Boss" Fuller now. At the recent republican caucus held in the 5th ward, Fuller "steered" the students for the winner.

MR. PACKARD says that a snipe has a nerve running clear down to the end of his bill. So has the plumber. How wonderful are nature's works.

HARRY HAMMOND has joined the police force. Armed with club and horn he will keep people away from the fence during ball games. The horn will be brought into use only in desperate cases.

BRADLEY was well represented at the Easter services in the city churches. A great many claim to have attended four services while one claims to have been to six. No bad effects have been noticed as yet.

SEVERAL from the Institute attended the "Hobo Karnival" given by the Bicycle Club, March 26th. A great time was had as the bicycle boys do things right.

DR. LYONS' duties as a fraternity officer do not always fall along business lines. On the 14th ult. he attended the annual hop of the Alpha Tau's at Champaign.

THE many friends of Miss Maude Kinney, who was a student last year, will be pleased to learn that she will return in a few weeks to spend the commencement season.

A NUMBER of students attended the concert given by the Eureka College Glee Club at the Christian church, the 17th. Eureka has a good club and gave a very good concert. Their date here was one of several on their trip.

THE editor of the TECH has moved into a suburb. Hereafter he will look after the interests of the Peoria STAR at Canton. He will be in the city every afternoon and will keep up his work in chemistry and mathematics for recreation.

JUDGE Kohlsaat of Chicago, judge of the U. S. Circuit Court, visited the Institute April 17th, and gave a short address to the students in the chapel. He is one of the trustees of Lewis Institute and therefore takes especial interest in schools of like nature. The address was thoroughly enjoyed by the students.

THE Athletic Entertainment April 7th was a great success. Every number was heartily encored, and the large audience was not only gratifying to the participants in the program, but was also the cause of many a sly smile on the faces of the Athletic Board. (The board has but one face, but there are several individual members who each possess one face.) Mr. O'Rear, who has had much to do in arranging for the entertainment is to be congratulated on its brilliant success. About $65.00 was added to the athletic treasury.

Heard Down at the Coop

Little hen, speckled hen,
Easter tide has come again,
Do me a favor now I beg,
Lay me a speckled Easter egg.

AN INSTRUCTOR in French at the University of Chicago announced in his class room recently, that any one speaking English in his French recitation would be fined a cent a word. The result has not been given out.

THE faculty of the University of Chicago has placed the same restriction on members of the glee, mandolin and banjo clubs as have formerly been applied to members of its athletic teams. In the recent preparation for their annual Easter trip the Glee club members neglected their studies to such an extent that the above restriction was made necessary. This is probably the first instance among colleges where such a restriction has been made, though it is a just one. All organizations of a school should be placed under the same restriction in regard to studies.

Tennis Officers.

The officers of the Tennis Association are Ralph Smith, president; Mr. Cherry, vice-president; Walter Jack, secretary-treasurer.

Alpha Pi's Initiate.

James Ross and Albert Trieble were initiated into the secrets of the Alpha Pis Saturday evening, April 28th. After riding the goat the members proceeded to the National, where a most sumptuous banquet was had.

Those at the banquet were Messrs. Simpson, O'Rear, Lyons, Dunlap, Trieble, Ross, Dexter, Harris, Olmstead, Leffingwell, Radley, Smith, Jack, McClyment.

Miller Initiated

Fritz Miller, Bradley's old pitcher, was initiated into the Kappa Sig's over at Champaign the other night. The goat had been especially groomed and fed for the occasion and showed Miller curves that he had never dreamed of before.

New Instructor

Miss Morehouse of Council Bluffs, Ia., has been chosen to take charge of Dr. Lyons' botany classes for the rest of the year. She is considered especially adapted for the place as she has had considerable experience in teaching and has specialized in botany in the University of Chicago.

Watts Doing Well

Mr. Watts, an ex-Bradley boy, has a good paying position with Uncle Sam, and is laying up dollars to use in attending Bradley next year. He has the contract for hauling the mail to trains in Peoria, receiving several thousand dollars annually for the work and has to spend only a reasonable amount for horses, assistants, etc. Mr. Watts is a fine specimen of sturdy manhood and with his pockets full of money he is sure to be welcomed back to school.

A Change

The Lower Academy held an election the 18th ult. to choose a new member of the Athletic Board. Although the race was by no means uneven, Roscoe Kellar carried away the cup. Fred O'Rear, who has served on the board since a year ago last fall, was not a candidate. No fault was found with his hard work on the Board, but as is often the case his "politics" were wrong. He will hereafter eat warm suppers Wednesday nights and will walk with a lighter step, having no honors to carry around.

Horological

A. H. GRANGE, Department Editor.

GRANGE was home over Sunday.

RIDOUT left on the 15th for Minnesota.

WANTED.—A pair of rubber heels.—Sleepy.

LUCIUS caught a good game Saturday, the 7th.

LITTLEFIELD actually worked all day the 11th.

MCCLYMENT has quit the Horological until June 22d.

ONE of the gold bricks bit on the old bait of file-oiling.

ARE YOU going to the skating rink tonight, Littlefield?

SIELSCHOTT takes a position at Chandlerville, Ill., May 1st.

FREUND spent the week before Easter at home in Springfield.

LOUIS FALKIN spent his birthday, the 26th, at home, San Jose, Ill.

BERTA has a responsible position with Lochman Bros. at Springfield.

PEETZ is laying in a supply of rings, preparatory to a trip to Pekin.

RUGGLES is back to watch work, after a two weeks' hunt at Spring Lake.

MISS MANIFOLD will return to her home in Beloit, Kan., about May 15th.

MILLS seems to find something very attractive in the mirror in the C room.

HINES has charge of the "hock shop" department since Potter went home.

THE Horological boys turned out well at the athletic benefit entertainment.

CRAWFORD has given up the search for the slide rest and is again good natured.

SLEEPY won the decision over Stevens in a boxing contest at the hash-house last week.

NEARLY all the boys in the engraving department are engraving large plates to send home.

MISS WATSON has been home for the past two weeks on account of the sickness of her mother.

THE following were out on account of sickness: Mills, Cochran, Littlefield, Stephens, Sielschott.

GRABILL has resigned his position as instructor in the C room, and is now taking watch work under Prof. Hood.

JAMES K. MORLAN has returned to his home in Belize, B. H. He and his father will run a jewelry store in the Philippines.

SEVERAL of the horological boys visited Pekin, Sunday. A few made hits, among them was Germany. It cost him a heart for her bracelet.

IT WASN'T so bad for Shortie to be mistaken, but to think that Stevie would ask a girl to skate that he didn't know, is the worst we ever saw.

WE WERE all sorry to see our track team enthusiast leave school. He has accepted a position in a watch case factory at Mansfield, Ohio.

VISITORS at the Horological school are always welcome, and especially the ladies, The boys always get a chance to give away some of their work as souvenirs.

KITTERMAN is home for a week's visit at Tiskilwa, Ill. Stevie's father called on him on the 10th. To show his appreciation of the visit, Stevie took him to the theater.

THE NEW gold bricks are J. S. Lee, Shelby, Ia.; J. F. Thompson, Anderson, Ind.; J. L. Brooks, Harness, Ill.; Walt. E. Sanders, Columbia City, Ind.; John W. Strain, Minonk, Ill.

THERE were more students left the last week of March to accept positions than have left in one week since the school started, viz., Garnett, Hitchcock, Henry, Lindenmeyer, Potter, Scott, Wood, Cohenour, Born, Millinch, Dawson, Hass, and Sheldon.

Athletics

Base Ball

The first real practice game (though it was no game at all) that Bradley had was with the Peoria High School team, April 7th. It was the first time that the Institute players had a chance to hit the ball, run the bases and tag the runners. The game, which was very much one-sided from a spectator's standpoint, pleased those concerned in Bradley's welfare greatly. Lackersteen had good control and speed, and Lucius, as a backstop, showed himself able to fill Schaefer's place in case of injury. Bradley hit the ball and ran the bases better than ever. The game resulted 35-3. Batteries were: Bradley, Lackersteen and Lucius; Peoria High School, Gutsche and Frazee.

Bradley, 17; Lincoln, 10.

The game with Lincoln University, Satday, April 14th, not only marked the opening of the college base ball season, but also the resuming of friendly relations between the two schools, and that Bradley was successful in both undertakings, goes without saying. The game was of the usual first game variety, loosely played, still at times there was some very good work done by both teams. The game again brought out the fact that Bradley can bat and run the bases better than last year. This was clearly shown when, in the first inning, Bradley crossed the plate seven times, partly on account of Lincoln's poor fielding, but mostly on hitting the ball and keeping the hits bunched. Lincoln scored once in the third and again in the fourth, running in a total of five runs, by bunching their hits and also with the assistance of two errors by Bradley. After the fourth, the game was very good, both teams doing better work and each pitcher getting better support. Bradley had secured such a lead that it could not be overcome, and won out easily, 17-10. Both Lackersteen and Pond pitched good ball. Each gave five passes to first, but nine of the Lincolns failed to connect, while Pond succeeded in striking out only six. Lackersteen was very effective in both the sixth and seven innings, when bases were full with only one out. Each time they failed to score. Schaefer backed up Lackersteen in his usual style. Porter and Page fielded their positions well, while Page also lined out three nice hits, two of them being doubles. The tabulated score is as follows:

SUMMARIES.

Earned runs—Bradley, 9; Lincoln, 2. Two-base hits—Porter, Page (2), Lackersteen and Porter (Lincoln). Struck out—By Lackersteen, 9; by Pond, 6 Base on balls—Off Lackersteen, 5; off Pond, 5. Double play—Porter to Page. Umpire—Voris.

Bradley, 7; Knox, 6.

It is well known that Bradley would rather defeat Knox College than any other school on its schedule, still when the team departed for Galesburg, April 19th, few expected it to win out. The result came as a pleasant surprise, and along with it came the fact that the score could have been more. The game was won as follows: In the last half of the ninth, with the score 6-6, Lucius came to bat and hit out a nice single. He stole second, and Porter then lined a single to right, on which Lucius scored, thus winning the game. With none out, Bradley was satisfied, and Stocky packed another victory in amongst the bats.

The day was ideal for ball playing, Willard Field in excellent shape, and the grand stand was closely filled with Knox students and also many friends of Bradley. Knox began in the first to score, Walker scoring on a hit by Gaines and a wild throw. Bradley failed to score until the second, when they really won the game. McClyment doubled to left, stole second and took third on Page's single. Schaefer, by a single, forced in the first run. Lackersteen flew out. Then came the play that caused the Knox supporters to lose heart. Kilver landed on the ball for a home run, also bringing in Page and Schaefer. From this point on the game was hard fought, but Knox could not overtake the lead of Bradley until the ninth, and then only to lose.

Lackersteen pitched a fine game, striking out men when hits meant runs. He also fielded his position finely, having three assists in the seventh. Shields pitched a strong game for Knox and had perfect control of the ball. The tabulated score is as follows:

SUMMARY.

Two-base hits—Porter, McClyment, Lucius, Page, Stephenson and Gaines. Home run—Kilver. Umpire—Wasson, Galesburg.

Bradley, 13; Cornell, 7

Three home runs, two three-base hits, or a total of eighteen hits; Lackersteen's good pitching, and the good, all-around playing of each one, tells the story of the Bradley-Cornell game, played at Mt. Vernon, Ia., April 25th. Cornell went down before Bradley by a score of 13-7, which would have been more for Bradley, except for several rank decisions by Umpire Tucker.

The team, after being on the train for six hours, arrived at Mt. Vernon at 2 p. m., dressed and started the game at once. No one expected such a one-sided game as resulted, as Cornell has a very good team and has held the silver bat, which is given for the State championship, several times. Bradley's scoring was as follows: In the second, McClyment got base on balls, Schaefer singled. Lackersteen then tripled, scoring both men. Lackersteen scored on Kilver's single to right field. Again, in the fourth, Bradley straightened out Lane's curves to the extent of three singles and two home runs. Brown and Lucius singled, then Fuller made a clean home run between center and left. In order to finish the inning up in true Bradley style, Porter followed Fuller's example, making the second home run for the inning. In the ninth, Lackersteen and Kilver singled. With two on bases, Brown lined out the third home run. Porter singled and scored on McClyment's triple to center.

In the meantime Cornell, by six hits, had managed to cross the plate seven times. Lane retired from the box at the end of the sixth, and Hasset succeeded him. Bradley took as kindly to his curves as those of Lane, and in the ninth punished him severely. Kilver fielded especially well, accepting three hard chances in good style. Lackersteen pitched a steady game, holding down hits when men were on bases several times. Brown's batting eye returned, as he landed on the ball for two singles and a home run. The tabulated score is as follows:

Defeated by Iowa State

The second game of the Iowa trip resulted disastrously for Bradley, much more so than it should have been. Outside of the fifth inning Bradley played good ball, but they went completely to pieces in that inning, and when the third man was out, eight of the Iowas had crossed the plate. Bradley would have had hard work to win from the fast State University team, yet the score should have been very close. Iowa State has recently defeated the Des Moines league team, Nebraska Indians and such strong organizations, yet Bradley can play just as fast ball as was shown during the game. Iowa's heavy hitting team only found the ball for seven hits, four of these being made by Moss, their star twirler. Porter pitched the last five innings for Bradley, and would have held Iowa safe if he had been given any support. Porter had good control, lots of speed and considering that it was his first appearance in the box, pitched a good game.

Bradley's scoring was as follows: In the first Brown fouled out, Lucius went out from pitcher to first, Fuller singled, stole second and scored on Porter's single to center. In the fifth McClyment reached first on Williams error and stole second, Page flew out to pitcher, Schaefer singled, McClyment scored on Lackersteen's out at first. This ended Bradley's scoring, though several times they had men on bases, but in each case sharp fielding by Iowa prevented scoring. Iowa is probably the fastest fielding team that Bradley has ever played, and Moss, their pitcher, allowed Bradley only four hits. Moss himself is somewhat of a batter, as he secured four of the seven hits made by Iowa. Tabulated score is as follows:

Bradley, 12; Monmouth, 7

The third and last game of the trip played with Monmouth College, resulted in a well earned victory for Bradley and gave a good ending to the series. The game showed Bradley's ability to pull itself out of a hole and win out by playing good ball. Monmouth in the first inning, by means of three hits and three errors, scored six times. After that only one man succeeded in crossing the plate, while Bradley by hard and steady batting won out easily by a score of 12 to 7. The first inning Bradley was tired out and stiff from their nearly all night ride from Iowa City, and consequently put up a poor fielding game. Lackersteen, who started to pitch, had a sore arm, and consequently was easily found. Porter appeared in the box for Bradley the second inning and pitched a fine game, holding the hits down and strike-outs were frequent. Porter was given elegant support and all seemed to play with their old time vim; at the bat, on the bases and in the field, all the boys were playing the game much to the sorrow of Coach Flynn, of Monmouth, who had expected an easy game. Bradley bunched their hits, which Monmouth failed to do except in the first inning. Schaefer caught a fine game, throwing second in his best form and retiring three men at the second bag. Page hit the ball safely every time at the bat, and by his batting brought in several of the scores. Brown did some of the prettiest sliding yet done, and hurt himself severely while sliding home in the third. To Porter, more than anyone, is due the credit of the victory; by his consistent work in the box the boys were encouraged and gave him the deserved support. Gibson, for Monmouth, played a star game at short.

The tabulated score is as follows,

BRADLEY—	R	H	E	MONMOUTH—	R	H	E

BRADLEY'S second team defeated the Columbia High School team, April 21st, on Bradley campus. The feature of the game was Stocky's playing. Batteries were King and Block for Bradley. Reynold and Keithley for Columbia.

Pick Ups.

MR. RAYMOND was with the team on the Iowa trip.

BRADLEY'S batting and base-running is gilt edge.

PROF. BISHOP accompanied the team to Galesburg, the 19th.

SWITSER, Knox's last year's captain, is playing third for Illinois.

DR. KNIPE, the famous Pennsylvania coach, has charge of Iowa State.

"PINK" VORIS gives the best satisfaction of any umpire yet encountered.

HITCHCOCK, who was one of Bradley's most faithful rooters, is sadly missed.

THE morning of the ride from Galesburg to Iowa City, six changes were made.

ROY GRIEVES, of Lacon, met the team at Monmouth, and returned with them the following day.

BROWN is doing some exceedingly pretty base-running. He has been hurt several times by his sliding.

CRIPPLE ran for cripple. The first of the trip Brown ran bases for McClyment, but in the Monmouth game Brown was hurt at second in the eighth, and Mac ran out for him.

CLYDE BERRY, a student at the horological last year, gave the members of the ball team a banquet at Lowden's cafe in Monmouth. Mr. Berry was one of the faithful last year, and rooted hard for Bradley at Monmouth. The boys were royally entertained.

CAPT. ARMSTRONG, the colored captain of Cornell, expects to be Booker T. Washington's private secretary. He graduates this year.

CHARLEY LYONS graced the Bradley bench during the Lincoln game. It reminded one of last year when "Doc" was managing the team.

DURING the game at Monmouth a high ball was knocked back of Schaefer. After a hard run Schaefer misjudged it, the ball striking him on the shoulder and remaining there. He was afraid to touch it as it would fall, so Porter came and picked it off, completing the out.

THERE seems to be no movement at all towards the field day which was contemplated some time ago. There seems to be no one in charge and there is no interest at Bradley in athletics of that kind. The horological students subscribed about $20.00 to buy things for their team, but since the departure of Hitchcock this seems to have fallen through. Bradley should arrange a meet with the high school at least, and probab'y with the meet ahead something would be done.

The Trip.

The second annual vacation trip taken by the base ball team was successful beyond expectation. Three of the strongest teams in the secondary college class were met on their own grounds, and two suffered defeat, while Bradley is as much at fault as Iowa for losing the one. During the trip over five hundred miles were covered on the railroad, sixteen changes made, yet the team returned in good shape. Manager Brown deserves much credit for handling the team in the business-like way that he did.

Ability Recognized.

"Be sure your sins will find you out."

At a critical point in the production of "Sporting Life" recently, it was found that the actor who took the part of "reporter" in one of the scenes was missing, and the manager was forced to get a likely-looking newspaper man on a minute's notice. One look sufficed to satisfy him that Mr. McClyment, of the TECH, was the man he wanted. McClyment, you may be sure, carried off all the honors, (etc.,) of the evening. Later they wanted a few tramps; regard for our safety forbids us to mention the names of those chosen for the place. C. C. L.
